

The Junior Researcher Programme

is pleased to invite all psychology students to

The Open Conference

at the jSchool

11th July 2018

Certosa di Pontignano
Siena, Italy

Do you have research you would like to present to a group of fellow psychology students from around the world? If so, register to present a poster at The Open Conference, held at the 2018 jSchool in Italy!

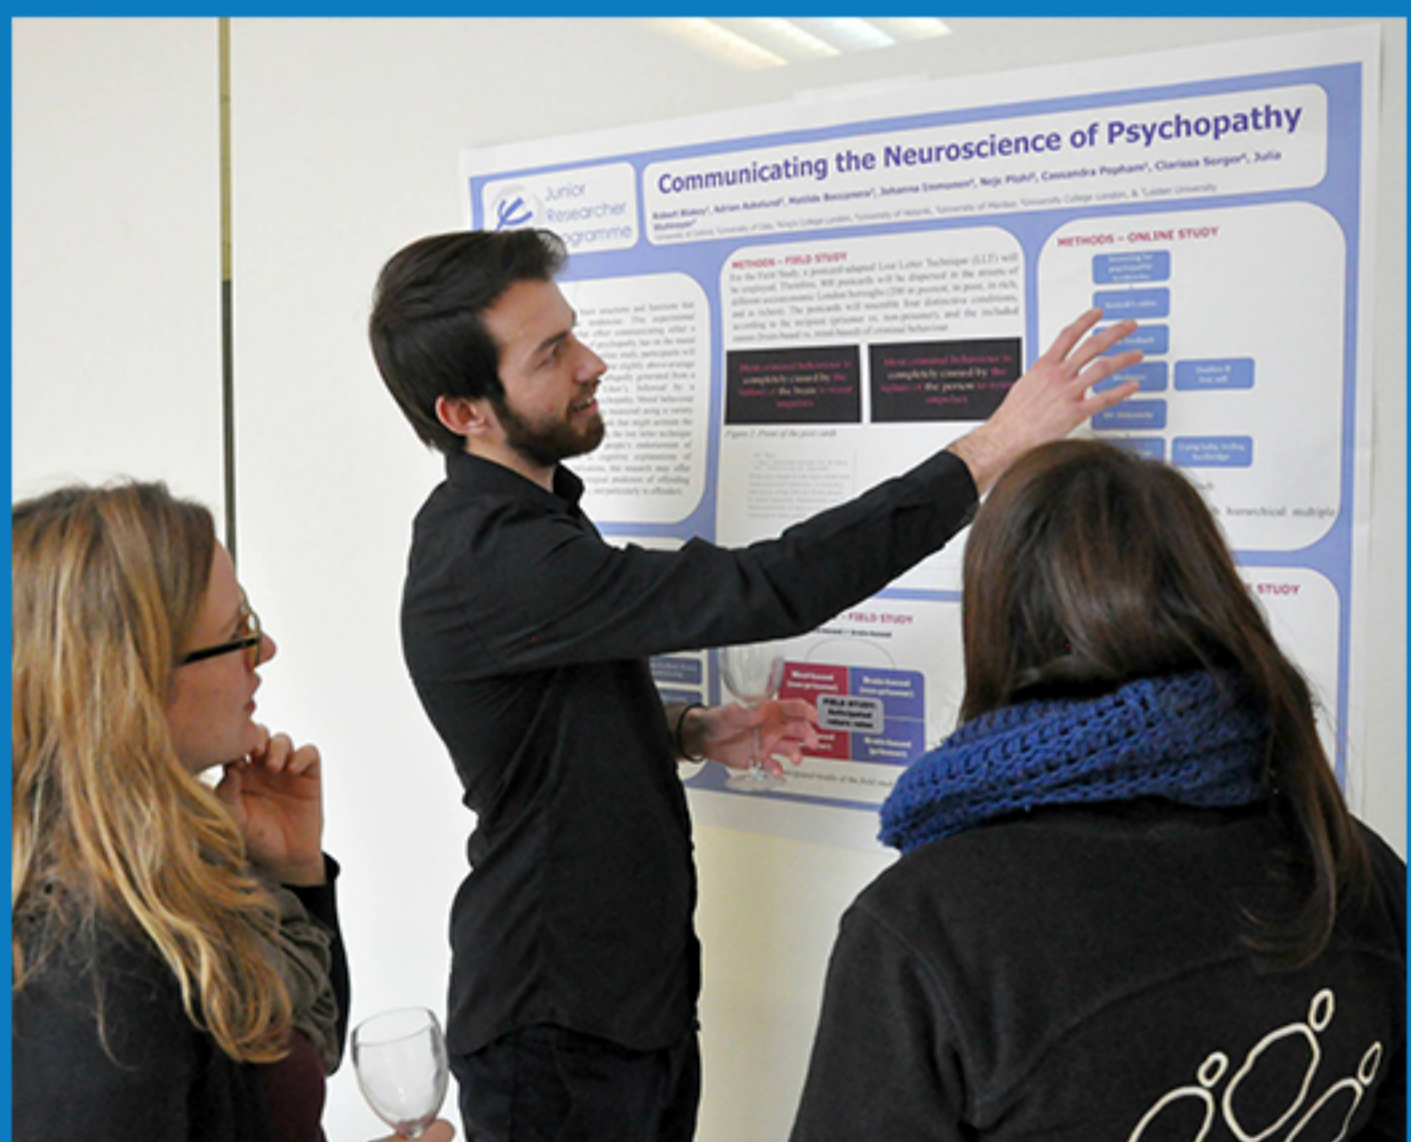

All participants will have their abstracts published in the event proceedings and will present during our poster session and drinks reception. You will also be invited to dine with us at the marvelous Certosa di Pontignano, renowned for the food and the scenery.

Interested participants will also have the option of attending an introductory workshop on designing behavioural interventions known as nudges led by a professor from Columbia University.

Interested? Email us for details at jschool@pscholars.org to learn more!

Programme

- 13:30 Conference & Workshop: Introduction to Behavioural Economics and Nudges
- 16:30 Opening & Presentation
- 17:00 Poster Conference and Reception
- 20:00 Dinner

Costs

- Option 1: Workshop, conference, dinner 80 €
- Option 2: Conference and dinner only 50 €

<http://jrp.pscholars.org/>

